

Navarre Krewe of Jesters

Policies and Procedures

1. Meetings

The membership meeting will be held the 2nd Wednesday of each month at the American Legion. If a change is made, a recommendation from the Board will be presented to Membership for a majority vote. The Board will determine the date and location of the Executive Board meeting and the membership will be informed. Meetings are nonsmoking events.

2. Secretary

The Secretary will submit minutes to the President for review, correct errors and resubmit the minutes to the President for dissemination to membership. This is to be done in a timely manner prior to the subsequent Executive Board or Membership meeting. The secretary will then ask Membership to approve the Membership Meeting minutes "as written" at the following Membership meeting.

3. Treasurers Annual Report and Audit

The annual financial report will be due by 31 May. An annual audit, executed by a Krewe member appointed by the President, will be completed by 31 May.

4. Jester Attire

The Krewe uniform consists of a black tuxedo jacket with tails. The Executive Board is empowered to make any exceptions. Noncompliance means non-participation in that event. All members are encouraged to own a tuxedo-style shirt.

5. Delinquency of Dues

Dues for regular membership will be $50.00 per year and be considered delinquent if paid after June 30th. For each month, or portion thereof, that dues are delinquent there will be an additional $5.00 charge.

6. Associate Member Dues

Dues for associate membership will be $125 paid annually.

7. Associate Member Privileges
